I apologize for my rough and raspy voice.

Due to health issues that don't allow me to ever get enough sleep, which causes my voice to sound thrashed, thin, and weak, at times, I can't wait till it works, properly, to record my Podcast. The information I share is urgent and more important than this Watchman on the Wall's weak and warbling trumpet blast to warn those with an ear to hear.

Please listen past this old warrior's best attempts, but if you can't, I understand and provide transcripts for all my Podcast episodes. You may shut me up, entirely, and just read the script, yourself, or even let an AI voice read it to you from the PDF version. Regardless, listen to the warning, then spread the word, please. And pray.

This is The Last Hour
Episode #1
"Time is Running Out"
April 6, 2024

God is real. The Bible is true. And Jesus Christ died for you. You must believe in Jesus to be saved...before you die. Do you know Jesus, personally, as your Lord & Savior? I hope you do, for we're in the Last Minutes of The Last Hour of the Last Day of human history on Earth.

Welcome to Enoch Was Not. I'm Brother Scott. Let us pray:

"Dear Heavenly Father, thank You for Your many blessings upon us, both Believer and Unbeliever. Your Grace and Mercy are abundant. Your Love is infinite. You are Holy, Just, Patient, and Long-Suffering that no one should perish but come to a saving faith in Your Beloved Son, Jesus, before it's too late. You have always told us the End from the Beginning through Your Word and the many prophets You sent to warn us about the consequences of disobeying You.

“Heavenly Father, we have been in the Last Days since Jesus died upon the cross to atone for all the sins of the world, for a Day to You is like a Thousand Years. By Your perspective it has been nearly 2 Days since Jesus ascended back to Heaven to sit beside You on His throne. He waits, patiently, as You do for the Fullness of the Gentiles that You might say to Him the time has come for the Bridegroom to return and claim His Bride, the true church of true believers in Him and Followers of the Way, the Truth, and the Life.

Those of us who are Followers of Jesus Christ, the Light of the World, recognize and celebrate His Resurrection, daily, but especially each Passover Week, when upon the Cross of Calvary He conquered Death and the grave, sin, Satan, and became the perfect sacrifice for all mankind to atone for our sins and pay the debt to You that we could never pay on our own. We who are faithful and true know that each day is a celebration because He is Risen! Jesus lives because You had a plan of redemption to save mankind from all our sins and wickedness that came upon us from the Beginning in the Garden when Adam & Eve were first deceived by Satan and disobeyed Your Holy Will.

“Heavenly Father, we honor You as the One & Only Almighty God of Israel, who has sovereign authority over the Earth and its creatures, and the entire Cosmos; You are the Most High & Holy God of all Creation and You have made life for each of us possible. We humbly bow our hearts and minds before You and ask forgiveness for our many sins against You.

“Please, Lord, please be merciful and forgive us. Open our eyes and ears to Your Truth, Your Light, Your Love, and Your Holy Way that we might live by Faith Alone in Christ Alone and saved by Your Grace, Alone. Please forgive us when we fail You, Heavenly Father.

*Please be merciful, faithful and true to forgive us, if we will only humble our hearts and seek You, always. Lead us, Lord, and guide our hearts and minds to do what is right by You, always. May we seek You, each and every day, and walk closely with You. We only wish to serve You, Lord, and be found pleasing in Your sight.*

*“Forgive me, Lord, where I have failed

You. I am truly sorry. Help me to improve in my walk with You, that I may never mislead anyone. Help me to never seek anything for myself, but that all be done for Your Honor & Glory, for the building of Your Kingdom to come, Thy Will be done, forever more.

"We ask all these things in the precious and Holy Name of Jesus Christ, our Lord & Savior. Amen."

I don't intend to be rude, but time is running out and I don't have time to hold everyone's hand and help them breathe, deeply, and decompress from all the evil of this wicked world while they slowly struggle to wake up without hyperventilating or passing out. Sometimes, you just need to throw cold water on `em and hope for the best.

If you have 60 seconds to live, assuming you even have that long to ponder the question, would you make the right choice? Most people will not. For many are called, but few are chosen.

Anyone with even a modicum, a tad, or even a skosh of common sense should know that long before calamity strikes is the best time to prepare, and not just immediately before you're deluged and drowning in disaster. The time to prepare is not when the earth is quaking, the building's shaking, the fire is raging, or the bombs are falling. You should have taken a pointer or seven from that crazy neighbor prepper who, if not entirely accurate, perhaps, on the exact calamity coming...can still sense that something is seriously amiss. Something, nay, several things are just not right in this world and most people know it. They can sense it.

Many are afraid to admit it, of course, but that doesn't negate the truth. This world and reality as we knew it seems to be unraveling.

The time to prepare was yesterday, or back during the Reagan Administration. Even now may be too late. Sadly, too many are not prepared and tend to freak out when all Hell breaks loose.

I want to share with you words of hope and comfort regarding the Return of our Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ. All I offer is what Scripture says about the coming event as prophesied or foretold by God's prophets and Apostles who, faithfully, tell us of fantastic things to come that we can look forward to and look up towards Heaven with great excitement in the Blessed Hope that is in Jesus, whose return is imminent.

Before we can look forward to upcoming events, we must look backward to understand when certain things, probably, happened for a better understanding of why I, and many others, believe the appearance of Christ in the clouds, above, to receive His church and take them to Heaven could happen at any moment.

As I've heard it explained in an easy to understand analogy: Prophetic signs leading up to the Rapture appearance of Jesus to take His body of believers back to His Father's House is very much like seeing, in the Fall season, the many Christmas lights and decorations on display in all the malls and stores, telling us that Thanksgiving is just around the corner. When you see all those Christmas decorations, then you better get ready for Thanksgiving because it isn't far off.

Here in 2024 we're seeing an ever increasing variety, frequency, and intensity of signs that we've read about in our Bible and are an indication of the End Times Great Tribulation known as Jacob's Trouble or the 70th Week of Daniel when all of God's Wrath will be poured out upon the Earth-dwellers. We who firmly believe in a Pre-Tribulation Rapture know that the time is quickly coming upon us for this mysterious and miraculous event to happen. Jesus is coming, soon! Are you ready?

Now, I know there are some very hard core believers in Jesus who do not agree with a Pre-Trib Rapture. Let us agree to disagree, my dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ, and love each other, anyway. I've studied this for years, now, and I have never seen anything to convince me that a Pre-Tribulation Rapture event is incorrect. You may frown and laugh at me, later, if you're proven right. Of course, when we're all taken up and transformed in the twinkling of an eye before the 70th Week of Jacob, then I won't even wink at you to say "I told you so." I'm sure we'll all be far too happy to be playing such silly human games.

Though there has never been nor, probably, ever will be any human in mortal form with a perfect or correct understanding and assessment of the Biblical timeline, none of us can fully prove some things nor fully disprove others. Perhaps God will allow something to be discovered that could, immediately, change all that, but I feel rather certain that as long as there are humans, secular or religious, that they will always be arguing, regardless of the objective truth of the obvious.

Although, I believe that Heaven means no more doubt, confusion, or reason to argue and debate anything, for all will be revealed. Till then, have fun debating and arguing...with someone else, please.

Let's look at the Beginning, first. This will be a rather quick overview from a very high perspective. My logic suggests that God, the all-knowing and all-powerful Creator of all things, could make anything and everything look and exist exactly as He wishes, for He does all things for His pleasure, and His Will is sovereign. God made man in His own image and the last time I read the Bible, Adam wasn't a baby when he was created. Adam was formed out of the clay and God breathed His spirit into the first fully formed Man. He didn't have to waste any time growing up, right?

Though I can't say how old Adam was, I believe he was in his late 20s, at least, and probably 30. Why? Because he was the First Adam and Jesus was the Second Adam whose ministry began about the age of 30. God tends to repeat types and events in Scripture, especially prophecy, to help us get the point, so it's understandable that the First Adam who sinned and caused the whole of Creation to be cursed, thereafter, would be a type of "Christ" that needed a true Savior in Jesus, later, who was and is the Second Adam and, actually, capable of obeying and fulfilling the Will of His Father in Heaven.

After the First Adam named all the creatures and tended the Garden of Eden for a few "seconds," as viewed from God's vantage point and in His timetable, then Our Creator gave him Eve after which it all went downhill, quickly. Now, I said that Adam only tended the Garden for a few “seconds.” What do I mean by that? Have you heard or read the Scripture that says a Day unto the Lord is like a Thousand Years? Let’s look in our Bible, shall we? I’m reading from the New King James Version or NKJV. The idea is found in a couple passages. First, in Psalm 90:4 it reads...

4 For a thousand years in Your sight are like yesterday when it is past, and like a watch in the night.

And in 2nd Peter 3:8, it reads...

8 *But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.

Now, God is Eternal and Infinite. He is, was, and always will be Timeless. So, why were these specific time periods used regarding the Beginning Creation of mankind? Most would probably say, simply, that these are but Jewish idioms to express a poetic understanding about the enormous majesty of Almighty God. I would agree, mostly.

However, I also think there's more to it because our God is not a God of confusion. Our Creator is precise. Has to be. The Cosmos and all it contains was not just haphazardly thrown together or randomly appear out of nothing on its own, no matter what some scientists say, and our Earth is so finely-tuned to allow for life in hundreds of ways the rest of the planets in the viewable Universe cannot even compare. It's absurd and mathematically impossible for Earth, humans and all living creatures to be a random coincidence leading to evolution. Period. However, God does like a good mystery, obviously, and enjoys hiding a thing or seven, so that only those who really seek Him and love to learn about Him will truly know some of His secrets, which He has sprinkled throughout all His Holy Scriptures. And we do not call those Easter Eggs.

Easter comes from the pagan goddess Ishtar and true Christians refuse to worship anything but Father God in Heaven, above. Be careful of thinking that chocolate bunnies and colored eggs are the reason for the season. No. Jesus is always the reason for the season. Any season. Every season. For He made all of it and holds it in the palm of His hand. You know, the nail-pierced hands that held Him to the cross when He willingly sacrificed Himself to become the Savior of the world.

I prefer to read the Word of God and take it as literally as I can, wherever I can as the context permits, unless it specifically indicates that it is a simile or something merely symbolic and poetic, or unless the common sense interpretation doesn't make sense. I'm not a Bible Scholar, but I try to pay close attention to those who do understand the Bible, deeply, as well as the original Hebrew and Greek languages from which all our English translations are compiled. I learn from those who know the truth.

I prefer the NKJV over the others, having been raised on the KJV, but I'm not a KJV Only purist and, certainly, appreciate new insights gained by more recent studies and archaeological finds, like the Dead Sea Scrolls, that add to our rich understanding of Our Lord, Creator, and Savior.

Now, back to the human history timeline. If we look at our "normal" time from man's perspective, then there are 60 minutes in every hour and 24 hours in one of our days. Now, let's reverse that from God's perspective according to His Scripture that we read, earlier, and do a little basic math. If a Day unto the Lord is like a Thousand Years and a Thousand Years are like One Day, then how many of God's "hours" might be left in human history, as we know it, before the Lord returns to gather His saints and take us to be with Him in His Father's House in Heaven?

A Thousand Years in one Day of 24 hours, from God's perspective, means each hour would contain 41.6 years. I realize this can get tricky on an audio-only podcast where we don't have charts or images to go by, but it's a good exercise for the mind. You can always pause, look it up online, take notes and study it, later.

We know we're already in the Last Days because it is written, specifically, in the New Testament (Hebrews 1:1-2)...

1 God, who at various times and in various ways spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,

2 has in these last days spoken to us by His Son, whom He has appointed heir of all things, through whom also He made the worlds;

Paul had already taught the Thessalonians about the New Covenant of Christ, belonging to the New Age of Grace or the Church Age that was ushered in after the death, burial, resurrection and ascension of Jesus Christ into Heaven following His crucifixion, about 32 AD, and the beginning of the church at Pentecost 50 days after Passover.

The Apostle Paul was a very learned Hebrew and Pharisee, even before his blinding by the Light of the World, Jesus Christ, on the road to Damascus when Our Lord & Savior changed Paul from a misinformed persecutor of the Lord and His followers into one of His chief Apostles and Ambassadors of the coming Kingdom of God.

When Paul describes in 2 Corinthians 12:2-4 about his tale of knowing a man who ascended to the 3rd Heaven, which we believe is Paul, speaking of himself, who heard and saw things that cannot be revealed, he was probably instructed by the Lord, at that time, of the mystery of the Rapture, also, which he was allowed to reveal, so that we might be comforted by this Blessed Hope of Christ's imminent return to rescue His Bride and remove her from the hour of God's Wrath to come.

I assure you that Paul knew of the mystery of the Rapture and had taught it to those believers in Christ at Thessalonica during his first few weeks of establishing the new church, there. Anyone who tells you that there is no such thing as a Rapture does not know Scripture. Anyone who says that the word "rapture" does not appear in the Bible is wrong. It appears in the Latin Vulgate and all other translations use different words that convey the same meaning or concept. In Greek, the word is "harpazo." Our English translations may say "snatched away" or "caught up," but all mean the same thing, which is: a "violent" or sudden seizure like a thief in the night stealing something valuable; or like an eagle snatching its target from the ground, suddenly, and soaring away.

The English word "rapture" is a transliteration of the original Latin word "rapio." This event is described several times throughout the Holy Scriptures from the Old Testament to the New Testament using the same Greek word "harpazo"; everywhere and everyone from Enoch to Phillip to Jesus. Both Enoch and Jesus were taken up to the 3rd Heaven, like Paul, where the Father's Throne and House reside. Phillip was raptured sideways on Earth from Gaza to Caesarea. The Rapture is one of the many reasons I'm fascinated by Enoch who walked faithfully in fellowship with the Lord.

Some will say that this Rapture “nonsense” only came about, lately, in more modern times and point to an English pastor named John Nelson Darby. While Darby may have reacquainted the world with the concept of the Rapture, he certainly did not invent it.

Others wish to confuse Believers in Christ Jesus and the Blessed Hope Paul preaches about that we are to share with our fellow church family to comfort them. The Rapture is real and it is not the 2nd Coming of Jesus. I'll do a deeper study of this, another time, if the Good Lord tarries. However, 9 times out of 10, when someone wants to argue about anything in the Bible, it's simply because they have not read or studied the Bible and have only taken someone's word for it. YouTube influencers and Wikipedia editors are not the best Bible authorities, so be careful to know your source for something so important. In other words, don't take my word for it, go get a Bible and read it.

Besides, whenever Christians receive such severe pushback on anything truly Biblical, then you can be certain it is because of Satan. He is the one who hates God, hates humans, and hates anything that might stop him from distracting you from your Blessed Hope in Jesus Christ. Only an idiot or a fool would keep screaming that the Bible isn't true. You've been deceived. But God will forgive you, if you just stop this nonsense, admit you're a sinner, and ask Him for forgiveness. You, too, can go to Heaven, but not with an evil attitude or without Jesus Christ as your Lord & Savior. Amen.

Now, with the Rapture in mind, this sudden snatching away of Christ's body of believers, known as His Bride in Scripture, we also are told that no one knows the day or hour of Christ's return. Let's read the passage from Matthew 24, Verses 36-42:

36 "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only.

37 But as the days of Noah were, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

38 For as in the days before the flood, they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that Noah entered the ark,

39 and did not know until the flood came and took them all away, so also will the coming of the Son of Man be.

40 Then two men will be in the field: one will be taken and the other left.

41 Two women will be grinding at the mill: one will be taken and the other left.

42 Watch therefore, for you do not know what hour your Lord is coming..."

This is speaking of the appearance of the Lord, during the Rapture of the church, and not of His physical return to Earth at His Second Coming. The Rapture is an appearance in the clouds when we who believe in Christ, both dead and alive, are "caught up" to meet Him in the air. The language and sequence of events are very different from the Lord's Second Coming at the end of the Great Tribulation when He returns to judge the Earth-dwellers and save His Jewish brethren from certain destruction by the Antichrist. The Rapture and physical return of Jesus on the Earth are two separate events. One is an appearance and the other is a physical planting of feet on the Mount of Olives. First is in the air, the Second Coming is on the ground.

I believe that there have been nearly 6,000 years since mankind has been upon the Earth. Yes, I'm one of those Young Earth Creationist types, but I can certainly allow for billions of years of Pre-Earth creation, perhaps, as any and all of it can be guided exactly as God intended. I don't need to argue about any of it, especially since none of that has anything to do, directly, with our salvation and reconciliation with the Lord.

I might address Creation in another episode, but for now, if you want to just click away and scoff, assuming my perspective on the Rapture didn't already cause you to disappear, pun intended, then so be it. I base my belief on trying to rightly divide the truth of Scripture within proper context, while using the best interpretation I can to know the intended Will of God. I'm human and fallible, but without human intervention, the Holy Spirit has led me to believe the Scriptures as clearly written, in my opinion.

Though I may not know the Day or Hour of the Lord's appearing, I believe that God has shown us from the Beginning of Creation of the Earth and all its contained creatures - through His example of the 6 Days of Creation and the 7th Day being one of rest - that time is nearly up for humans on Earth. For instance, there have been several Ages of human history that have been labeled various things. This could be a very long study and in just an audio format, quite confusing, so that's why I said I'm doing a high overview and will keep it as simple and basic as I know how to do.

I believe that the main reason God chose to use or indicate 6 Days for His Creation efforts was to teach mankind about a proper time-frame for work and rest, plus give hints at the fulfillment of certain prophecies.

Almighty God is omnipotent. Why would anyone believe that He needed any amount of time to think, breathe, or speak a word and create everything, when He could have easily done it instantaneously? Most argue over 6 Days as opposed to 16 billion or more years, when I think God could have done it in .0006 nanoseconds. Even that might be too long, so please forgive me, Father, if I am suggesting you're incapable of doing anything you desire in whatever amount of time you desire.

I'm always in favor of Occam's Razor, which in layman's terms means keep it simple. The most simple and easiest explanation is usually the best. Our Creator is not a God of confusion. His thoughts are far above our thoughts. His ways are far beyond our ways. And while He does love a good mystery, I'm sure He has an excellent reason for hiding anything from prying eyes. Remember, Satan can read, too. He knows the Bible and he wants to devour all mankind and destroy the Jews.

In Proverbs 25:2, Solomon states:

*"It is the glory of God to conceal a matter,
But the glory of kings is to search out a matter."*

Many people have tried to discern the timeline of human history and Biblical prophecy according to the Holy Scriptures. Only God knows, true, but it's fun to speculate and worth investigating, I believe, for many interesting things have been discovered such as the very intricate timeline of Daniel's prophecy regarding Jesus' entry into Jerusalem on Palm Sunday prior to Passover and His crucifixion. Apparently, those Jews who were paying attention, though a very small group, it seems, knew the exact day that their Messiah and coming King would ride into their Holy City on the colt of a donkey according to prophecy.

This is why Jesus wept over Jerusalem and said He would have taken them under His wings like a mother hen does to protect her chicks, if only they would have known the day of their visitation, meaning Jesus' entry into His Holy City as their prophesied Messiah. Since they did not know the Old Testament Scriptures, being the alleged spiritual leaders of God's Holy People, then God partially blinded the Jews even unto this day, but prophecy indicates that the time of their partial blindness is drawing to a close as the Fullness of the Gentiles is coming, soon, and the Rapture of the Church will occur when the Restrainer or Holy Spirit is removed, being the One who is keeping the Antichrist from appearing on the scene. It's all in the Scriptures, if you will just read it and ask the Lord to grant you insight through His Holy Spirit who is anxiously awaiting to reveal to you the mysteries of God's prophecies.

Now, secular scientists (those who do not believe in Jesus) will tell you that the Earth is several billion years old and the Universe is, at last count, over 26 billion years old. I don't believe any of it, though I will gladly acknowledge that God can make it appear any way He wishes, which could mean that though it looks like it took that long - and maybe it did - that has little to do with His Creation of mankind and all the kinds of creatures on the face of the Earth, afterwards.

I'm confident that more and more revelations will occur in the months and years ahead, prior to the Rapture, Great Tribulation, and Jesus Christ's Second Coming, which will further confirm the Bible and point towards God as the very specific, all-powerful and Only Creator He always said He was from the very Beginning. Still, the vast majority of humans will refuse to believe in Him or the Bible.

So, the Biblical timeline of human history, according to the genealogies of the seed of

Our Lord & Savior, Jesus Christ, and the Scriptural references to actual proven Earth history, plus concrete archaeological evidence of fulfilled Biblical prophecy, allow me to perceive that humans have only been around for a few thousand years. Nearly six thousand years; at least this is God's view of mankind's history from His perspective and what He wants us to look at, closely, for the proper awareness of Him, His Will, His Character, and what He determines most important for instruction of our relationship to and with Him.

While it's very difficult to pinpoint it, precisely, I think determining a general season, at least, of when we first existed is possible. If mankind has been around about 6 thousand years, which is 6 Days according to God's clock, then we are approaching the Last Day of human existence on Earth.

According to the Book of Revelation, the Last Day is the Sabbath Day of Rest in the Lord, which is His 1,000 year reign on Earth known as the Millennial Kingdom. One Day is like a Thousand Years, so the coming Last Day is the Day of Rest in His promised Kingdom on Earth when He'll sit upon the Throne of David, a prophecy yet to be fulfilled, and rule with a rod of iron over His Chosen People, Israel, from Jerusalem while also ruling over all the other nations of the world. Jesus is King of Kings and Lord of lords. He will reign for a Thousand Years on Earth fulfilling prophecy, then forever more in the New Heavens and New Earth.

Time is running out. After nearly 2 Thousand years since the beginning of this currently ending Age of Grace, The Last Days described by Paul in the First Century AD will soon be called the Last Day, in the eyes of God, because it will not be another Thousand Years before Jesus is sent to rescue His true church; His body of true believers and followers. This is why I and so many others believe that we are in the Last Day and, actually, the Last Hour or a span of 41 remaining years till God's Wrath is poured out upon the Earth. And it could happen sooner, of course.

How so? Well, if you've been taking notes or paying attention, then you'll see that the 6 Days or 6 Thousand Years since the Beginning of Creation has brought us to now, 2024, and it appears that the only thing that is keeping God from sending Jesus to take His Bride back to the many rooms He's prepared for all of His true believers is the yet to be fulfilled Fullness of the Gentiles, which must be so close to being complete that Jesus is sitting on the edge of His seat.

This is why I believe and say that the entire Earth and over 8 billion souls alive, at this moment, are living in the Last Hour at the end of this Last Day before the Great Tribulation begins. For as the Great Tribulation draws to a close, Jesus will descend and return to plant His feet, once more, upon the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem where He will fulfill all the prophecies for the Book of Revelation including saving the one third remnant of Jews from complete annihilation at the hands of the Satan-possessed Antichrist.

The Last Hour, according to God's perspective, is only about 41 years till the Millennial Reign of Christ on Earth. Some believers think that 2070 is the end of this Age and their supporting evidence is very convincing, as well. Regardless, either way it is close. Since the Great Tribulation is 7 years long, and I believe in a Pre-Tribulation Rapture of the church, then even if we use the 2070 extended date for the end of this Age of Grace or the Church Age, it means that the Rapture, though imminent and could happen, now, or at any moment going forward, should definitely occur prior to 2063.

There are several other very important prophecies like the Ezekiel War depicted in Chapters 38 & 39 of Ezekiel that I believe definitely happens before the Great Tribulation, also. Due to some details of the Ezekiel War prophecy that speak of Israel burning all the enemies' weapons for 7 years from that huge attack, I think the Ezekiel War will happen at least 3.5 years prior to the beginning of the 70th Week of Daniel. My reasoning is the Jews are warned by Jesus in the New Testament Scriptures to flee to the wilderness when they see the Abomination of Desolation, which will occur at the mid-point of the Great Tribulation as the Antichrist desecrates the Holy of Holies within the Third Temple that will be rebuilt, soon.

Since the 1/3 remnant of Jews will be hiding, most likely in Petra and protected, supernaturally, by God till the end of Jacob's Trouble, then they won't be able to burn the weapons for fuel, nor should they need to, at that time. The Ezekiel War is the main prophetic awakening event for the partially blinded Jewish people who will, suddenly, realize that they were the ones who killed their own Messiah. Sadly, by this time of awakening when the blindness of Israel's eyes has been cleared away, only a third of the Jews remain to flee into the wilderness.

Once they recognize Jesus as their true Messiah and feel all the shame, remorse, and guilt it will cause, they will shout to God to forgive them and save them from certain destruction by the Antichrist and his armies. Only then will Jesus return to Earth and save His people from the outpouring of God's Wrath upon the entire Earth and all Unbelievers as well as Satan's wrath that has brought all the nations' armies to Armageddon to annihilate the Jews. Satan believes that if he can destroy all the Jews, then they cannot as a nation repent and say "Baruch Ha'ba B'Shem Adonai!" "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" Satan hopes to thwart God's plan to send the evil angel to Hell for eternity.

When Jesus rode into Jerusalem on the back of the colt of a donkey, fulfilling another prophecy (merely one of over 300 Jesus fulfilled during His mortal life on Earth), the crowd of people who followed His processional into the Holy City on Palm Sunday, during Passion Week, recognized Him as the Promised King or Messiah as prophesied in Psalm 118:26, by proclaiming "Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!" Unfortunately, the Pharisees, Sadducees, and other Jewish leaders did not recognize their Messiah's visitation and had Jesus arrested, falsely accused, horribly abused, tortured, humiliated, and crucified that very week. They feared Him, His power, and His threat to their control and status over the Jews. They chose the world over their God.

Knowing this in advance, of course, Jesus wept over Jerusalem because they did not know of His First Coming, which led to the partial blinding of the entire House of Israel.

This is why Jesus told the Pharisees "Look, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me again until you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord'" in Luke 13:35.

The enemies gathering, even now, against Israel, as indicated by the Ezekiel War prophecy, shall approach from the North and attempt to attack the Jews, but will fail, miserably, due to the supernatural intervention of Almighty God. The huge military might of this coalition of nations, attempting to plunder Israel, has never been formed in history prior to the present day.

Already, most of the main players are in place, including Russia, Iran, and Turkey on the Northern edge of Israel within Syria and Lebanon. I'll go into the specifics of that war, later. However, the important thing to note about this attempt to plunder the Jews and seize their booty is that the main reason for the attack will be to call the world's attention to God's miraculous saving of the Jews, at the last moment, by supernatural means.

God will destroy nearly all of the invading armies by an earthquake in the Northern mountains of Israel, along with huge and heavy hailstones from Heaven, the inexplicable "swatting" down of all the enemies' missiles or arrows with little to no help from the IDF's Iron Dome missile defense systems, plus Almighty God will turn the invading armies against each other in confusion. The KJV says 5/6th's of all the invading armies will be decimated. The purpose will be to show the world that the Lord God of Israel is the One & Only True God of the Bible. The people of the world will marvel at this along with all of Israel who will know that they had nothing to do with their salvation as they were at the mercy of a huge force approaching that would have, truly, wiped them off the map as Iran has threatened for decades, except the Good Lord will intervene, protecting His Chosen People as He promised, thousands of years ago, and always fulfilled.

Because of the entire world marveling at this amazing miracle by God, I believe it's also possible that this Ezekiel War could happen prior to the Rapture, because when God saves the Jews, at the last moment, there will be millions of new believers coming to faith in Jesus Christ. Only time will tell, but pay attention.

This Ezekiel War event will not only cause the lifting of the House of Israel's blindness by their God's hand in saving them from certain destruction, but the whole world will see the miracles and realize the same. God is real. The Bible is true. Israel is and always has been protected by a Holy Hand from Heaven above.

So, who am I and what am I yelling about? I am a Follower of Jesus Christ and a very serious Bible Believer who sees the world through all things Biblical, especially prophecy, and after 64 years of living, working, playing, and pondering while reading, searching, seeking, and researching for years, I have concluded that: God is real. The Bible is true. And Jesus Christ died for you. Period.

Nothing else matters except that you know Jesus Christ as your Lord & Savior. All who believe in Jesus will be saved. Period.

There is no other way to Heaven. Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one...again, I say no one...comes to the Father Who Art in Heaven except by and through Jesus Christ who is the only way, the only door, and the only Savior.

If you believe anything else, you are misinformed. You have been deceived and lied to, intentionally or otherwise, and you must read the Bible and ask God to show you the truth. It's quite simple, really, if you'll only humble yourself and admit you don't have the answers. Please stop being stubborn and arrogant long enough to realize that there are thousands of reasons to believe in the Bible. Millions, actually.

Between thousands of years of historically accurate documentation in the Bible, which has been proven by secular historians, academic scholars, researchers, scientists, and the millions of believers in Jesus and followers of the Son of God since about 32 AD, when He was crucified on a cross in Jerusalem by the Romans under Pontius Pilate (again, all written down for absolute historical accuracy), plus the multitudes of eye-witnesses, their testimonies (both written and oral) handed down for millennia, and the untold thousands to millions of people murdered for their rock-solid belief in Jesus, then you have to be a willing or unwitting fool to say it isn't true. You have to, simply, have a hardened heart and mind set against God being real as well as the First & Final authority over all of creation, especially mankind, because you just don't want anyone to tell you what to do. How stubbornly childish of you.

Christ is love and He wants us to conform to

His high and perfect standard, which is impossible without His Holy Spirit.

Obviously, none of us can come close to conforming to Christ on our own. The Bible – His Holy Word – also says that if people refuse to believe in Jesus, then we are to kick the dust off our shoes and walk away. We are not to cast pearls before swine, because hangry hogs will eat anything, including Ambassadors for Christ, if they can just get their porky lips and snobbish snouts upon us.

Even Jesus, finally, had enough of the Pharisees in His Father's House, the Temple, and overturned the money-changers' tables. Even God gets angry. Even God's patience runs out. Just because Our Loving Heavenly Father is infinite love and Eternal, doesn't mean His very real emotions will tolerate sin, forever. Au contraire.

So, instead of being scared of what's coming, let's get prepared, shall we? As prophesied for these Last Days, "up" is "down," "good" is "bad" and "men" are "women?", which is one of the biggest signs of the End Times. The zombies are real and have come to life. As the comic strip character Pogo said, "We have met the enemy and he is us."

Sadly, however, the barbaric atrocities committed, today, by these Satanically possessed psychopaths are increasing in this world as it continues to devolve. The evil madness of all mindless, heartless, Satanic zombies blinds them to the truth as well as to all the innocent victims of their psychopathic rage who are unprepared for the sudden system shock of Satanic truth serum that has been injected into this world as Satan's end game is upon us.

This world has been mainlining evil for millennia and, soon, mankind will flat-line. In simple terms, the end of the world as we know it is upon us and, if you feel fine, then you're batting for the wrong team. There are only two types of people in this world that truly matter: Believers and Unbelievers. Believers in God and Jesus Christ. Or Unbelievers. Increasingly, more and more of these Unbelievers who do not believe have a very angry and demonic hatred, at times, that suggests more possession than obsession. Israel's recent 9/11 on October 7th, 2023, clearly shows what appears to be a mass event of drug-crazed, Satanically stupified, and demonically zombified barbarism unleashed upon an unsuspecting and unprepared group of Israelis who are waking up to the increasing anti-Semitism the entire world is spewing upon Jews, everywhere, which will, eventually, drive most of them back to their true homeland in the State of Israel. It's time to wake up, people. The nightmare isn't going to stop just because you want normal to come back. Normal isn't coming back. But Jesus is. Are you ready?

There may be many who do not appreciate my bedside manner. I understand. However, when you are about to barrel over a cliff and plummet to the bottom of a bottomless pit out of ignorance, distraction, or unbelief in what the consequences of your insane actions might be, then all the sign at the edge of that cliff needs to say is "STOP!" in ALL CAPS.

It doesn't need to hold your hand or gently whisper "Please don't eat the daisies and, while you're at it, be careful of the huge crevasse beyond this sign or you will meet Jesus sooner than you thought, assuming you've ever thought of meeting Jesus, which you should because we all shall, someday." See, that's way too long for an important sign at such a location and at such a time as this. You need something simple, easy to understand with the appropriate size font to reflect the proper urgency because time is running out and, let's be realistic, shall we?; very few have the attention span greater than a Tik-Tok video or the IQ to process what they're seeing. So, I think a good sign should have a Bold Impact font with foot tall letters and an exclamation point.

Consider me just another sign pointing at a large chasm with heavy black smoke pouring out of it and, perhaps, the hint of red-tinted flames dancing above the rim to the tune of "Burning Down the House" as the faint demonic whispers of weeping, wailing and tooth gnashing suggest that there were, apparently, far too many people who couldn't, wouldn't, or didn't read the sign or, simply, refused to believe it.

My job is just to point to the Bottomless Pit and say "STOP!" Your job is to pay attention and, actually, listen...stop, and then try to get out of the way of great zombie horde racing forward upon the Highway to Hell at the speed of darkness. If you can snag a few fellow groggy and bewildered travelers on your way back from the razor's edge, please try.

I do not make these Podcast episodes for any other reason than to help reach the Lost or Unbelievers, the Unwashed, the Unclean, the Unsaved, the Undead, the Damned...so that they may wake up and realize that they must believe in Jesus to be saved. Period.

I'm not selling anything or making even one penny off of this effort. Yay, me. I'm also not seeking credit or kudos. All Glory goes to God! Always. It is for His Honor & Glory that we serve Him. He came to Earth, visiting His own creation, to walk among us, to talk with us, to teach us and lead us by example, and of course, to willingly die for us. It wasn't iron nails that held Him to the cross for nearly six hours. It was love. Love for all of us, His beloved creation, brought Him to Earth. His love for us led Him through all the suffering, shame, pain, and excruciating torture of the cross. Jesus loves me, this I know. Do you know it, too? Do you know Him?

Jesus died so that we may live. Someone had to pay the price for our sin, for the wages of sin is death. That is how the very Righteous & Just God of Everything made all of Creation. That's Just how He rolls. It's His House and His rules. He is perfect. Believe it or not. Believe it and believe in Jesus and you shall inherit Eternal Life with Jesus and Our Father in Heaven, which will be Paradise and is beyond our mortal comprehension. Soon, all will be revealed to those who put their faith and trust in Jesus.

Believe not at the peril of your own soul, which is eternal and doomed to be cast into the Lake of Fire – Hell – if you reject Jesus as your Savior. He is Lord & Savior of all things. He made all things with His hands for His pleasure. He will do His pleasure, always, and it will be Just, Holy, Righteous, Good, and Eternal.

Jesus is the Messiah. Yeshua HaMashiach. Jesus is the King of the Jews. He is King of kings and Lord of lords. He came to His people, first, who rejected Him and had Him killed, so God allowed the Gospel to be taken to the four corners of the Earth unto the Gentiles. Because the Jews rejected their Messiah, they have been partially blinded as a people; a nation. The House of Israel did not recognize their King, their Lord & Savior. Their Messiah. They think He never came and are still looking for Him. Oops. Please don't make the same mistake. Don't reject Jesus as your Lord & Savior.

For the past two thousand years, since Jesus died on the cross, was buried, then rose again on the third day (Sunday), the Gentiles have been blessed by the Gospel, the Good News, that God has provided His Free Gift of Salvation through Jesus Christ to everyone who will believe. God does not want anyone to perish. Your race, creed, color, ethnicity, religion and so on are irrelevant, for in Heaven there is neither Jew nor Greek (Greek meaning Gentile). Heaven will be filled with God's Glory, forever, and all of His children. We are Brothers & Sisters in Christ. That is it, lest anyone boast.

We cannot get to Heaven by our works, deeds, money, connections, power, influence, social standing, family ties, or any other worldly measurement. It truly is who you know. You must know Jesus. Salvation through Jesus Christ is a Free Gift so that no one can boast. Jesus paid it all. All to Him we owe. You can't earn it. You can't be good enough. You can't be moral enough. You can't help your fellow man enough. You can not do anything to earn your way into Heaven.

You cannot do anything to enter into God's good graces. In fact, it's the other way around. It is only God's good grace, mercy, and love that allows you into Heaven, if you believe in His Son. The One who died so we might have Eternal Life.

God did it all. It is done. Jesus died for you. For me. For every soul who ever lived and will live in the remaining time of mankind's short history upon the Earth in mortal form. Jesus is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes unto the Father except by Jesus. Jesus' name in Hebrew means Salvation. He is the Savior of the world. He is the perfect sacrificial Lamb of God. Jesus is the Messiah, our once and future, Forever King.

Disbelieve any of this at your own peril. Believe in Jesus and you will be saved. Just like the one thief on the cross the day Jesus died on Calvary. The Messiah was crucified, lifted up, between two thieves. Both mocked Him, at first, like many of the Roman soldiers, the Pharisees and other Jewish elders, and those Jews who were very angry that Jesus did not first appear to them as they had believed their Messiah would; as the Conquering King of the Jews that would send the Romans running.

The Jewish people wanted a real Earthly king, which has always been one of their greatest flaws. From Saul to now, most Jews selfishly think of only worldly things, and as a people, a nation, they missed the visitation of their Messiah. They should have known exactly when He would appear. It's in their Holy Scriptures. Their great prophet, Daniel, foretold exactly when Jesus would appear in Jerusalem, which the Son of God did on the very day foretold.

That's a long and very detailed prophecy. I believe, as many do, that it is precise. Our God is precise. He doesn't make mistakes. He doesn't waste time, energy, effort, or cause confusion. Humans do all of that. Humans can't see the forest for the trees. All humans are imperfect including me. All humans are sinners and are under the curse of sin from the moment of conception.

For no one is good, no not one, says the Bible. All have sinned and come short of the Glory of God. Yet, because God loves us so much, He was willing to die for us and pay the price of all our sin from the Beginning to the End of human history. He died and atoned for mankind's wickedness and imperfection. All we have to do to be saved is believe in Jesus.

When we truly believe, we will love Him with all our heart, soul, mind, and strength. We must obey Him. We must do as He commands. But first, just believe that Jesus is the Son of God. The True & Living God of Israel. Believe in Jesus and be saved.

THE LAST HOUR EPISODE CLOSE SFX:

Last Hour Chime...clock ticking...

Next Episode #2 Tease:

With the world holding its breath to see how Israel retaliates against Iran for their revenge attack against Israel by ballistic missiles and drones for the assassinations of two senior Generals of the Iranian Guard Corps plus other high-ranking IRGC and Syrian officers at a secret meeting in a building near the Iranian Embassy in Damascus, Syria, join me, next episode, as I look at this current scenario and its possible implications for Biblical prophecy in the ramping up phase of the impending Ezekiel War.

The Last Hour Close

Remember, Enoch Was Not...for God TOOK him! His faith and fellowship with God allowed him to escape the wrath of the flood. Wouldn't you like to escape the Hour of God's Wrath to come as it has been foretold for millennia? I would. I will. For He is Faithful & True. He is my Lord & Savior. And He is my ticket out of here. Jesus is my Blessed Hope.

This is The Last Hour of the Last Day before the End Times that God's Holy Scriptures describe. He has warned us from the Beginning, so the End will not make us afraid. Fear not. Seek Him and keep looking up, for the Kingdom of God is near, and Jesus is coming, soon!

I will pray for you that you make the right choice. Choose Jesus. Choose life, eternal. Till we meet, again, this side of Heaven, I ask that God bless you and be merciful towards you, always. Amen.
