

Disclaimers

I cannot possibly provide all the Disclaimers that many people require, these days. There are so many thin-skinned people who cannot function without someone holding their hand and softly speaking only what they demand or else they cringe, freak out, and crumble into a convulsing heap of PTSD. If you're one of those people, then please move along and find a safer space. I am old. T-Rex old. I won't hit you; my arms are too short. But I can still roar. Seriously, I love your soul, but that doesn't mean that we humans will always like each other. I'm okay with that. I will pray for you. Please pray for me.

Enoch Was Not Podcast and Website will, primarily, be Rated G and considered Family or Child Safe. I will, occasionally, speak of more mature or adult matters, simply because the Bible does, though I don't intend to be graphic or gross. Still, some people are delicate and sensitive, so I'll try to remember to indicate in advance where the conversation is headed, either audibly on the Podcast, or with a graphic, image, or text if the written word requires it. That way you can either turn the volume down or scoot the children from the room.

-- I am human. I will make mistakes. Sorry.

-- I am a sinner saved by Grace Alone through Faith Alone in Christ Alone. Jesus saves. Believe in Him and you will be saved and have your sins washed away by the blood of the Lamb of God. Jesus is the only perfect human.

-- Enoch Was Not website and podcast are Free. I neither ask for donations or run ads on the Site or within the Podcast. If you ever see or hear of this happening, it is not me and someone is making money off of my effort. All Glory goes to God, but I would appreciate if you would not support those who steal and are greedy. However, as the Apostle Paul wrote in his epistles...if these others are telling everyone about Jesus and Sharing the Gospel, then it's still Good News.

-- I am a Follower of Jesus Christ. He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. No one comes unto the Father in Heaven except by Jesus. There is NO other way to be saved, period.

-- The only "safe space" I need is the one where I'm standing next to Jesus. If you require a safe space, then I suggest you talk to Him. If your safe space requirements require you to invade my personal space, get in my face, and step on my toes, then I may be forced to introduce you to Jesus, earlier than you intended, and it may not be in a manner you would prefer. That's not a threat, just a warning. It could also be a joke. Listen and tell me, later, if you get my sense of humor.

-- I love the Lord, my God, with all my heart, mind, soul, and strength. He is my Savior.

-- I love my neighbor (everyone else in the world) as myself. I do not, always, love their actions. I do not love sin. I am not perfect; no humans are. There is only One who is perfect and He is God.

-- God is real. The Bible is true. And Jesus Christ died for you. Believe in Him and be saved.

-- The Bible, or Holy Scriptures, is the inerrant Word of God as inspired by the Holy Spirit through great men of faith. It was written over the course of many centuries from as long ago as, perhaps, 2,000 years B.C., but the oral and historical stories go back to the Beginning. Families handed these real records down, orally, as well as in the written form, which were compiled much later by scribes inspired by the Holy Spirit. These Jewish writings and oral traditions, later became the Bible, which had its final Scriptures added in the First Century by the Apostles of Jesus Christ. I interpret our Bible contextually and believe it to be literal in almost every sense. At times, it is obviously poetic or symbolic in nature.

-- Most who argue against the Bible or disbelieve it, simply, have not read it, fully, or cannot understand it, which is generally the case with the natural man in whom the Holy Spirit does not dwell. There is another category of "unbelievers" for those who, simply, refuse to accept God's ultimate authority over their lives. So, they rebel and get angry, lashing out and shaking their fists at the very One who gave them life, and all the abundance of His Grace, Mercy, and Love, each day, plus His Free Gift of Salvation through His Beloved Son, Christ Jesus, in whom He is well pleased.

-- When I speak of God, I'm talking about the One & Only True God who has no equal, no peer, no valid competitor. He is the Mighty One of Israel, the Alpha & Omega, the Beginning & the End. He is the Creator of all things including mankind. His name is known to the Jews and they are His Chosen People. I'm not interested in debating this or arguing about it, nor do I want to disparage the belief of any and all who believe in some other "god." Some of us will never agree, of course. I do not believe that all roads lead to Heaven. I do not believe that following ANY other faith or religious system results in an Eternal Life in Heaven with the One True God that my Holy Bible represents. Thus, by the above observations, I am stating that I don't believe ANY other faith, religious system, or ritual is completely accurate or capable in the way necessary for the Salvation of the Human Soul and its reconciliation to our Creator.

-- I am not Jewish. I am a heathen Gentile who is grafted into the Olive Branch by the Grace of Almighty God.

-- I am a supporter of Israel and believe they have the God-given right of return to dwell in their covenant land; the Holy Land of Israel, which has been theirs for thousands of years.

-- I do not hate the Palestinians, Muslims, or Arab peoples. They are descendants from Abraham, also, and God loves them and wants them to, also, believe in His Son, Jesus Christ, who died for all mankind that none should perish, but have Eternal Life.

-- I am not some esteemed scholar with a college degree. I just love to learn. So, I read, listen, observe, think, ponder, wonder, and think some more. I share my thoughts on my Enoch Was Not website and Podcast because my Lord compels me to Share the Gospel and tell people about Jesus.

-- I never intend to mislead anyone. I do my best to research, study, and learn the truth before I speak.

-- I do not seek notoriety, fame, fortune, or pats on the back. All Honor & Glory belongs to God. Praise Him. Worship Him. Give your life to Him. Believe in Jesus! That's all I seek. Later, in Heaven, we can all go speak with Enoch and get his story, first-hand.

-- You may share my writing from the website as well as the audio from the podcasts, of course, but I would deeply appreciate if you would NOT edit, change or alter my material in any fashion. Please do NOT share mere portions of either posted text, or audio from the Podcast, for this is how many become confused then err in comprehension or interpretation. Instead, it is better to share a link to the website or podcast, please. Let them read the whole text and listen to the entire Podcast. Thanks for sharing Jesus with others, though.

-- When I learn I've made a mistake, I will apologize and correct it. I may, occasionally, change my mind on something and then alter the website text or podcast audio, whenever possible. My faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, however, is unwavering.

-- Speaking of mistakes or irregularities, I apologize if you listen to my podcast and also read the transcript because you may find a disparity, here and there, in that I might say something that isn't in the transcript, or vice-versa. During the recording phase of producing the podcast, I might ad-lib something and interject it into the text, then forget to update the transcript. Usually, it will be minor. I'm not a fan of reading from a script, and I'll try to sound as natural as possible, but I don't claim to know the material so well that I can just speak off the top of my head, always. So, my process is to read, study, research, study, ponder, pray, write, then record. I'll try to improve upon all of this so it can sound more relaxed, though if you're focusing on the message, then I hope and pray that the truth comes through no matter how it sounds. Pray for me that I'll do what is accurate and right by the Lord, first and always.

-- I am responsible for the material on this website and podcast. If there are mistakes, then

I made them. I am not a website designer, but I cannot afford one, so I did this website, myself. My apologies if it is not pretty enough or aesthetically pleasing for all you 5-dollar word aficionados.

-- Most everyone, by now, should know how the internet works unless you've been living under a rock, somewhere. Most every podcaster or YouTuber, etc., always encourages everyone watching and listening to SUBSCRIBE! I won't be wasting valuable audio "real estate" asking for "Likes" and for listeners/readers/viewers to Subscribe. You know what to do, just do it, if the Spirit moves you. If not, no worries, for me. If you like my website and podcast, then share it with others, especially those who do NOT know Jesus Christ as their Lord & Savior. Sharing the Gospel and getting people to Believe in Jesus is the #1 priority, always. Everything else is just icing on the cake...or doughnut. Or whatever idiom floats your boat.

-- My last bullet point, for now: Should it be necessary to add any further "Disclaimers" to this bullet point list, in the future, then I shall do so when I get the chance.

My voice is, usually, thrashed from lack of sleep due to health reasons and just being old. I am sorry if it's raspy or not as smooth or pleasing as you might like. If I waited till everything was "perfect," then nothing would get done. And my Lord & Savior, through His Holy Spirit, says...the time is short. The Kingdom of Heaven is near and Jesus is coming, soon! Are you ready?

So, please just overlook the mistakes and overhear the raspy voice and focus on the message. Hear the message, first, then kill the messenger, if you must. I know where I'm going. Do you know where you're going?

Dis, Dat, & Dose

Dis claim, dat claim, dose claims. Disclaimers. Everyone wants to claim foul, today. Nobody wants to be held accountable or take responsibility for anything, it seems. Here's My Claim: I hope you like me, my website, and my podcast. If you don't, then Contact me and I'll read your civil critique, your polite protestation, or your diplomatic demand and do the best I can to accommodate you, if possible, with a better explanation, perhaps, of what I said or meant, or I'll simply apologize. Otherwise, click away and find someone else to play with or...annoy, as the case may be. I am not one for kowtowing to culture. I will not bend the truth for anyone just because it is inconvenient for them, or causes them discomfort. Dis "comfort" you seek at the expense of truth is not the way to proper discipline or obedience and faithfulness towards God.

I reserve the right to refuse Service to anyone who can't be nice and polite. If you're one of these modern mayhem-causing, anarchic, burn-the-city-down, extremist revolutionaries that becomes apoplectic with rage when someone doesn't know or care about your: personal pronouns, safe space, or gender-of-the-day proclamations, plus all the other immature, self-entitled, self-indulgent, and incredibly intolerant, childish behaviors that thin-skinned mobs of zombies exhibit as they *shuffle, scuffle, and moan down Main Street, trying to eat our brains, then there's the digital door. Don't let it hit ya, where the Good Lord split ya! I believe that's one of the Lesser Commandments, but don't quote me.

You may have noticed that I don't have Comments enabled, nor do I intend to open up that huge can of worms. Conversation is nice. Questions are fine. Debate is good. Free Speech and the chance to express yourself and be heard via intelligent discourse are the best. However, as it's practiced online, today, Commenting has devolved into anonymous, rude, crude, drive-by-graffiti-shooting-off-their- mouth-vituperations of epicly vile, unintelligible, hateful drivel, childish nonsense and nastiness that I just don't have the time, energy, desire or patience to police.

So, no one gets a dissenting voice? Sure, as long as they're not throwing stones or nuclear missiles. All kindhearted seekers of truth are welcome. Remember, children should be seen and not heard; especially foul-mouthed children who haven't a clue what they're whining about. Let them go build their own website and podcast, then scream at the world as they wish.

Please Contact me, using the form provided on the EWN Website, and I'll respond as soon as humanly possible (I'm a one-man show), so your patience is appreciated. If I can address your comments, questions, or concerns via a group message, posting, or podcast, then I would prefer to do that, but I will always seek to respond, directly, as needed, or indirectly as quickly as I can. I care about your time and feedback. I hope you can understand why I'd prefer to limit or eliminate the bad behavior of the chaotic commenters so the rest of us can enjoy the conversation, as seemingly one-sided as it may appear to be. Sometimes, monologues are fun; just ask Shakespeare.

I greatly appreciate your willingness to spend a little time reading, listening, and responding, as you feel like it, but the majority of people never contact the world wide web influencers, programmers, podcasters, writers, voices, etc. Most listen, quietly, and enjoy from afar, or frown and turn to something or someone else and you'll never know they were ever here. If you like, stay awhile and share with others who might appreciate the efforts made on this side of the screen or microphone. If you don't like, then I still love you, pray for you, and hope you know Jesus as your Lord & Savior, or will take a moment to think about your soul and where it's headed, someday. Maybe even, today. So please don't wait. Amen.
